Copenhagen and Aarhus-based Zacco Advokater is the Danish legal arm of Zacco, Europe's largest firm of patent and trade mark attorneys, and has particular strength in litigation. The team acted for building components manufacturer Monarflex, which is part of the Icopal group, to enforce its European patent to a ventilation unit in Denmark and defended German furniture manufacturer himolla against Norwegian competitor Ekornes' claim that himolla's Zerostress recliner chair was a product imitation. Clients appreciate Mogens Yde Knudsen's 'diplomatic approach', and Martin Sick Nielsen is also recommended.
